

Bi-Partisan Working Group on Health Care Reform

June 17, 2008 Washington, D.C.

Participants and Agenda

Participants:

Senator Bob Bennett – Utah (R)
Victor Campbell – Senior Vice President, HCA
John Castellani – President, Business Roundtable
Guy Clifton M.D. – Senior Policy Advisor, New America Foundation
Representative Jim Cooper – Tennessee (D)
Representative Kay Granger – Texas (R)
Bob Kocher – Principal, McKinsey & Co.
Peter Lee – Executive Director, National Health Policy Pacific Business Group on Health
Ken Mehlman – Former Chairman, Republican National Committee
Janet Murguia – President and CEO, National Council of La Raza
Len Nichols – Director, Health Policy Program
Bill Novelli – CEO, AARP
Peter Orszag – Director, Congressional Budget Office
John Podesta – CEO, Center for American Progress
Leonard Schaeffer - , former Chairman/CEO, WellPoint, Inc; Senior Advisor,
Texas Pacific Group; Chairman of the Board of Surgical Care Affiliates
Andy Slavitt – CEO, Ingenix
Todd Stottlemeyer – President, National Federation of Independent Businesses
Senator Ronald Wyden – Oregon (D)
Rich Umbdenstock – President and CEO, American Hospital Association

Agenda

7:00 pm – 7:40 pm

- Introduction to Hope Street Group
- Introduction to the Bipartisan Working Group, its purpose and modus operandi
- Provision of background information on the Colloquium's health care break-out session, the gist of the discussion, participants and main takeaways/outcomes

7:40 pm – 8:20 pm

- Determine the Colloquium takeaways should be pursued and which ones are missing
- Brainstorm feasible, bipartisan, action-oriented health care policies/focal points that should be explored in the next dinner – establish the Bipartisan Working Group's focus

8:20 pm – 9:00 pm

- Brainstorm collectively about key leaders, experts and professionals in health care who need to be engaged in/contribute to the next dinner
- Determine next steps, who will be following up with whom, and discuss working timeline of deliverables for the next dinner